YELLOW CAB WINS IN P. S. C. RULING

May Place Call Boxes Here if Local Boards Give Approval.

REFUSAL IS PREDICTED

The Yellow Cab Company of Philadelphia won a victory over the independent taxicab operators of the Main Line and of the Delaware and Montgomery county suburbs in general last week when the Public Service Commission renewed its certificate of public convenience for operation in Philadelphia and vicinity and made an interpretation of the word "vicinity" which will allow the Yellow to give additional service in this territory.

The renewal was made for the regular period of two years and was granted on July 13, over a month after the temporary extension given last year had expired.

When the Yellow made application for renewal of its certificate nearly two months ago it asked that an interpretation be made of the word "vicinity," which would enable it to establish telephone call boxes in Lower Merion, Narberth and other Main Line sections and give individual service in these districts. This was asking an extension of the ruling made last year which allowed the Yellow to deliver passengers to destinations in the suburbs, but which did not permit it to establish call boxes here for relaying messages to drivers to pick up "fares" on their way in to town.

The whole argument of the Yellow company for permission to extend its service was fought by local cab men who declared that they were supplying adequate service to this territory. Practically all independents of the Main Line were represented by counsel at the hearing before the Public Service Commission, and they were backed in their fight by representatives of the Lower Merion Township Commission and the Narberth Borough Council.

In giving its ruling last week, the commission declared that there was a growing need for additional cab service in the suburban region which is a part of Philadelphia metropolitan district and declared that the Yellow Cab might give such, provided that it did not interfere with the sectional service already being given by local operators. This, it is explained, means that the Yellow may deliver passengers to the Main Line, and may stop here to pick up "fares" into town, but may not render strictly local service. The only time when local service is permissible is when any of the district back stands are given up by the present operators and the Yellow secures permission for a local franchise.

In furtherance of its ruling allowing the Yellow to give more service here, the Public Service Commission stated that the company may establish telephone call boxes for its drivers in the suburbs if granted permission by the municipal governments.

The "if" part of this ruling provides the only real weapon that local independents have to fight what they regard as the entering wedge of the Yellow service in their districts. Both the Lower Merion Township Commission and the Narberth Borough Council have expressed opposition to the Yellow company operating here and unless their attitudes have changed radically it is likely that the Mitten cabs will be refused permission by these two bodies to establish call boxes in Narberth and Lower Merion. A check-up with both Lower Merion township and Narberth borough officials revealed that no applications for establishment of boxes had been received so far.

HOLD POLICEMAN

In $2000 Bail for Court After Inquest.
Piquet Thought Wiley Hit-Runner.

After an inquest last Thursday night at Ardmore police headquarters into the death of Mrs. Florence Wiley, No. 322 Iona avenue, Narberth, wife of a Lower Merion township policeman, who was killed in an automobile accident at Haverford on July 12, the coroner's jury recommended a further investigation be made by the Grand Jury.

As a result Emil Piquet, another Lower Merion policeman and driver of the car which caused the death of Mrs. Wiley, was given a hearing before Magistrate Stillwagon and held for Court. The Court set his bail this week at $2000.

Mrs. Wiley was speeding to the Bryn Mawr Hospital with her 4-year-old son after he had been injured by an automobile. The car was driven by her husband, Leon A. Wiley. She was instantly killed when an automobile operated by Piquet sidwiped and overturned the one in which Mrs. Wiley was riding.

Piquet testified at the coroner's inquest that he thought Wiley was a "hit-and-run motorist," and was pursuing him. As Wiley was blowing his police whistle and another boy was standing on the running board blowing the horn, the coroner's jury decided Piquet did not use good judgment and should have known the other car was on an errand of mercy.

Pending the outcome of the Grand Jury's investigation Officer Piquet has been suspended from the force.

Lindbergh air mail stamps, 10 cents each, have for some time been on sale at the Narberth post office. Many local philatelists have been buying them, in addition to the general public. They are still going fast.

New Narberth Motion Picture Theater

Salasin and Freed, Ardmore builders, are pushing the work on Narberth's new motion picture theater in order to have it ready for use by October 15. The new theater will seat 850. There will be four stores fronting on Narberth avenue, with a dance and meeting hall on the second floor. An exception to Narberth's building code was granted to permit the erection of a marquee. The cost is estimated at $250,000.

MANY AIR VIEWS AT ZONE MEETING

Board of Adjustment Hears
Fleming and Pike Change
Arguments.

DECISION NEXT WEEK

Nearly a hundred interested property owners thronged Elm Hall Tuesday night to hear arguments for and against a change in zoning of Narberth's side of Montgomery pike, between Narberth and Haverford avenues. Plenty of words featured the meeting, which was called expressly for the purpose of hearing an appeal of Mary A. Fleming for the erection of an automobile service station at the corner of Montgomery avenue and Haverford road.

Although P. B. Krout, W. D. R. Evans and Walter I. Dohard, members of the Narberth Board of Zoning Adjustment, considered arguments with reference only to the Fleming appeal, they permitted interested property-owners to extend their talks to include the entire question covered by a petition of 30 property owners which was presented last Monday to Council at its July meeting.

Local advocates of a change of classification included Patrick J. Duffy, proprietor of a service station at Brooksmith near Montgomery avenue, and C. L. Parke, proprietor of the well-known "Billiard Parlor" on Narberth avenue near Haverford avenue.

Objection to any change of zoning classification was voiced by Chris Koch, president of the Narberth Board of Trade, who read the following statement signed by members of the association:

"At a special meeting of the Narberth Board of Trade held July 18 the following resolution was adopted: 'Resolved that no necessity exists for the extension of the business zone in Narberth and that the Narberth Board of Trade petition your Honorable Board and the Borough Council to refuse to open or change the zoning ordinance at this time.'"

Merchants Protest.

The Board of Trade contends that the Zoning Ordinance as originally passed gave everyone ample opportunity to demand necessary changes, but that the 30 Montgomery pike residents made no objection at that time. For the pike section to be opened up for business now, it is asserted, would mean an increase in property values along the pike, and a certain decrease in values of property on Haverford avenue in the heart of Narberth already zoned as business. And, the merchants hold, it would be unfair for special exceptions to be made now to benefit individuals at the expense of the entire business district.

A representative of Hirst McMullin, Philadelphia real estate firm, stated that property values would rise approximately 100 per cent. following change from a residential to a business classification. A property now listed at $30,000 could be sold for $60,000, he contended, if a change were made in zoning. He spoke in favor of Mrs. Fleming's petition, and of the petition of the 30 property owners as well.

"Eventually, Montgomery pike will be lined with places of business," he declared. "Why don't you make it possible for Narberth's portion to be like the rest of the pike? It is possible to build stores anywhere along the pike between here and City Line. There are no restrictions east of here."

Former Senator Fletcher W. Sutes took exception to this statement, and cross-examined the realtor. "Did you say there are no restrictions on properties east of Narberth on Montgomery avenue?" he queried.

"There won't be," replied the realtor. "Then it is not possible to build stores east of here on the pike?" pursued Attorney Sutes.

"No," came the admission.

Friends' Meeting Objects.

His Nose Sniffed News, but Yeggs Turned Out to Be Rotary Fishermen

Opposition to Mrs. Fleming's proposed gasoline service station was voiced by W. Russell Green, 440 Woodbine avenue, and Robert J. Edgar, East Montgomery avenue, who also objected to the entire proposed change in zoning. Mr. Green's specific objection to Mrs. Fleming's petition was that the proposed service station would be directly across the pike from a Sunday school which the Friends' Meeting plans to build on the north side of the pike, between the General Wayne Inn and the nearby stone house.

The statement that a service station is the logical successor to the blacksmith shop was advanced by Attorney T. Lane Bean, of Norristown, representing Mrs. Fleming. The zoning ordinance permits the continuation of a business in a property newly zoned as residential, provided no change in the nature of the business building is made. Mr. Bean's argument was that just as the automobile has taken the place of the horse, so should the automobile service station be regarded as a continuation of the blacksmith's occupation.

In the course of his speech, Mr. Bean attacked the Friends' Meeting, the General Wayne Inn, the Board of Trade, etc., etc. His efforts were received with polite interest by the audience.

Decide Case Soon.

The Adjustment Board will probably hold a special meeting the middle of next week, when it will make a decision on the Fleming appeal, in order to inform Council of its action before Council's August meeting. Its decision will probably take into consideration the fact that the Lower Merion Adjustment Board, at its May 26 meeting, refused Walter Bassett Smith permission to construct business building.

Fireside Is Vacant as Folks Go Away--Many Return, However

Many more folks have departed from Narberth for the North, the East and West, leaving the Fireside desolate. Others, however, who have been vacationing early, are now returning. Meanwhile, few social activities are taking place during the warm weather.

Mr. and Mrs. William Durbin, of Woodbine avenue, are entertaining at a house party at their cottage at Cape May this week-end. Their guests are Mr. and Mrs. Horace T. Smedley, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miner, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Fretz, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Durbin, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Redifer, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop B. Derby.

Miss Lucille Morris, of Haverford avenue, will leave today for Pittsburgh for a few days.

Miss Dorothy Durbin visited friends in Montclair, New Jersey, last week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Miller, of Chevy Chase, Md., are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter, Barbara Joan. Mrs. Miller was formerly Miss Bertha Redifer.

"Twas 4 o'clock in the morning. All was dark along the Main Line. Not for a half an hour would the first dim flush of dawn illumine the eastern sky. No bird could be heard chirping its first gay greeting to the dawn. All was still.

But not all. From the east, preceding the sunrise by two snorts and a rattle, came a Ford. Douglas Durant, editor of the Main Lineer, was returning from a Philadelphia newspaper plant with some copy for his weekly news magazine. Through the blackness of Bryn Mawr avenue in Bala came he, alert and attentive.

"Suddenly he paused. What was that? At 113 Bryn Mawr avenue there lurked the forms of many men garbed in sweaters, jerseys, white duck pants. Cars were parked along the curb, panting to go--where?

Were they house-breakers, taking advantage of the absence of the owner to loot furniture, silver, rugs? Were they bootleggers or yeggs at an important secret conclave, bent on evading the law? D. D. did not know. He stepped on the gas, until he saw an officer at the police call box on Levering Mill road.

To the custodian of the law he explained the situation. Hurriedly the pair returned to the scene of the burglary, murder, or outrage. Valiantly they accosted a group of rough-looking men who soon surrounded them.

They Were No Yeggs.

"Who are you? What are you doing?" asked the resolute pair.

"Rotarians. Can't we go fishing on a Wednesday morning without being asked 'foolish questions'?" came the answer. And then the situation explained itself.

Sixteen members of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club and their friends, deciding to go a-fishin' at Fortescue, had assembled for an early start at the home of Bill Decker, 113 Bryn Mawr avenue. With cars waiting to take them to the Jersey coast, the Rotarians made final inspections of fishing tackle, while awaiting a few tardy members whose alarm clocks had gone on strike.

The editor and the officer went their way. For the one some "news" as please witness this attempt but not for the other any brave arrest. The editor went home to sleep; the officer continued on his beat and is noncommittal. Came dawn.

Sixteen Rotarians, good men and fairly true, commenced their day's haul. When the day was done they had landed over 200 fish. The party split up and one group of four in a

Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. McDonald, of Price and Essex avenues, left last Saturday for a trip through Nova Scotia, Cape Breton and the Micmacs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Keenan, of Forest avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fortenbacher, of Lantwyn lane, have returned from a motor trip through the Adirondacks, New England States and Canada.

Miss Evelyn Jefferis, of Forest avenue, is spending the month at "Byrondene Farms," Chester county, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Atlee Livingston have returned from St. Hubert's, Essex county, in the Adirondacks, New York.

Mrs. G. D. Warden, of 108 Grayling avenue, has recently returned from a visit with her sister in White Plains, N. Y.

Rev. John Van Ness has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ketcham, of Ocean City, N. J., during the early part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fretz have been seen in Narberth recently. Mrs. Fretz was formerly Miss Virginia Davis.

CHANGE SCHEDULE

Garrett Hill dropped out of the Main Line League Saturday, leaving a gap in the schedule. Preston also, is not a member this season. As a result, only five teams are contending for the pennant, and the teams listed to play with Garrett Hill will play independent outsiders instead.

The Eastern League aggregation of fast and hard-hitting colored stars will play Narberth at the Community playground this afternoon instead of Garrett Hill. They are recruited from along the Main Line and from the Newton A. A. team. The next game scheduled to be played with Garrett Hill will instead be played with the Atlantic City Collegians at the Community ball field. Today's schedule of games follows:

Eastern League at Narberth.
Wayne at Paoli.
Gladwyne at Berwyn.

WIN FIRST GAME OF SECOND HALF

Narberth Defeats Paoli, 4 to 3,
in Tight Game--Townsend Pitches.

GLADWYNE TAKES FIRST

Narberth commenced the second half of the Main Line League season with a 4-3 victory over Paoli Saturday. Played on Paoli's field, the game was full of thrills. Townsend pitched air-tight ball for Narberth, except in the sixth inning, when a base on balls, three errors, and a triple gave Paoli three runs. Only three hits were allowed by Townsend, who struck out 12 railroaders.

Not until the final inning was the outcome at all certain. Scoring in alternate innings, Narberth gained one run apiece in the second, fourth and sixth. Paoli in its half of the sixth gave the local team a scare when it tied the score with its three runs. Two innings went by before either team could score. But in the ninth Narberth staged a rally and scored the deciding run.

The fielding of Girard and Henry featured for Paoli. The score follows:

Harmony Move Brings Hower Out for Recorder of Deeds on Slate

Lower Merion will have a representative on the county slate of the Republican organization which will be placed before the voters for nomination in the primary on September 20 and that representative will be William G. Hower, of Bryn Mawr. Mr. Hower will not be a candidate for county treasurer, the post for which he was originally groomed, but will run for recorder of deeds.

This was the announcement made Thursday night at the meeting of the Republican Association of Lower Merion and Narberth at a dinner meeting held in the Casa Del Rey in Haverford. The meeting, labelled as one merely for the transaction of routine business when it was called a week ago, turned out to be a fairly portentous one for local followers of the county organization.

Mr. Hower spoke, and told the stalwarts that, following conferences with Secretary of the Commonwealth Charles Johnson, the Montgomery county leader, he had decided to become a candidate for recorder of deeds. This office, it is pointed out, is as important as that of county treasurer and in addition carries with it patronage in the form of the appointments of five assistants.

The post is now held by Paul Sheeder, Pottstown Republican leader, who lost grace with the Johnson organization last year when he espoused the cause of Vare for Senator. Sheeder has announced his intention of retiring and no other outstanding candidate has put in a bid for the position in opposition to the Lower Merion candidate.

The switch-over of Mr. Hower from the county treasurership to a candidacy for recorder of the deeds was made in the interests of harmony, it was explained. At the last meeting of

KEIM IS SPEAKER

At Luncheon of Balcynar Rotary--Dr.
Martin to Talk Next Week.

His career, first as a school teacher and then as a certified public accountant for 15 years, was told by Hervey C. Keim, of Narberth, in an interesting talk to the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club, which met Tuesday noon for its weekly luncheon at the Cynwyd Club. Visitors at the meeting included J. C. Murray, of the Merion Title and Trust Company, Cynwyd, and John Albrecht, of Ardmore.

Next week's speaker will be Dr. William L. Martin, of No. 438 Levering Mill road, Cynwyd. Sixteen Rotarians took a day off Wednesday to go fishing. Fortescue was the place. Their day was an exciting one.

Gladwyn won its play-off game with Berwyn at Villanova Sunday afternoon, with a score of 3-2, landing the first-half league title. A record attendance of about 10,000 fans watched the contest on the neutral field. Trost and Vockel staged a pitchers' battle, Trost fanning seven and walking four, and Vockel striking out six and issuing passes to two. The scores follow:

Gladwyn lost its first game of the second half Saturday, when Wayne piled up a 5-4 score. Wayne's center-fielder, appropriately named Pickup, played sensational ball, with five sterling catches cutting off possible tallies.

Narberth, Wayne and Berwyn each won their games Saturday, placing them tie for first place at the opening of the season's second half. Berwyn trounced Preston, 11-4.

ings in the district zoned as residential, at the northwest corner of Montgomery avenue and McClenaghan Mill road, in the General Wayne district of the township. Mr. Smith had claimed that he could not sell his property as a residential district because of its nearness to the pike.

Eighteen nearby property owners had then objected, claiming that they had been sold land by Mr. Smith with the understanding that the property, known as the Wynnewood Manor Tract, would remain a nice residential section. Their objections were sustained by the Lower Merion board, and Mr. Smith's unsold property remains zoned residential.

No action will be taken this month by the Narberth Board of Adjustment on the petition of 30 Montgomery avenue property owners for a change of classification from residential to business, from Narberth to Haverford avenue. Probably the Adjustment Board's decision on the Fleming case will influence the borough council in its action at the August meeting. Another public hearing will have to be set before action can finally be taken on the pike zoning petition.

Narberth Hits Two to One in Wednesday Twilight Game.

St. Joe's went down to defeat Wednesday evening in the weekly twilight game on the Narberth ball field, with a score of 6-3. Pitching for Narberth, Gibson and Masters struck out nine between them. McFedridge's hitting featured for St. Joe's. He had three hits and a batting average of 1.000. The score:

HOME FIRST

That is what you've been thinking about for some time, and we've been wondering just how to bridge the gap and help you.

As the old Colonial furniture is being handed down and imitated because it has beauty oftentimes indescribable, just so are the old Frame Houses being sought, copied and modernized. In some cases they are reproduced to the most minute detail.

We'll agree that lumber has certain disadvantages in construction work, but the variety of woods and the variety of its uses so far outnumber any of its competitors, that we look upon it as the old standby.

Build a Home First, then happiness and prosperity will follow.

and tell how

YOU CAN'T SEE a tire carcass because it is covered by the tread. Yet the way this carcass is built tells how far the tire will run.

Dunlop has had 39 years to learn all the hidden points where tires wear. Dunlop carcasses are built from the best long fibre cotton, spun in Dunlop's own mills into the famous Dunlop cable-twist cord.

These cords are elastic, so they give and take as your tire runs; strong, so they resist constant load and pounding. They build the best possible foundation for the Dunlop tread—the toughest rubber development known.

Thus Dunlop's extra years of experience build added value into every vital part. That is why, not one Dunlop—but every Dunlop—gives you more service than you can reasonably expect.

We recommend that you put Dunlops on your car

Facts About Jeddo-Highland Coal

It Is Carefully Sized

Jeddo-Highland coal comes out of the ground in many-sized lumps, together with dirt and rock and slate. It is then hoisted up to the top of a breaker, where it is dumped. The larger lumps of coal are crushed by rollers and the biggest pieces of slate and rock are removed BY HAND.

The coal next passes over screens where it is sized into the familiar Egg, Stove, Nut, Pea and Buckwheat. Then down it goes through spiral pickers which remove flat pieces of slate, and thence into the jigs and tables where it is separated from other impurities, being constantly washed by a continuous stream of water flowing over it.

Such careful preparation naturally results in clean coal, uniformly graded. AND WE ARE SELLING IT.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE BANKING SERVICE HELPFULNESS

By the nature of its organization, and its work, this bank is a semi-public institution. The private profits of our stockholders are based upon the public helpfulness of our service.

From president down to the youngest clerk, one standard is held. Every act of ours in conference room, in bookkeeping, in the service at the receiving or paying windows or at an officer's desk must be an act of helpfulness.

The ideal we have set is that every man or woman who honors us with his or her business shall advance farther on the road to success as a result of this association.

SOME NEW BOOKS

Purchased by the Library.

The summer season shows a slight let-down in the publication of new books, hence there are not many to list for the month of June and July. Among those that have attracted much attention is "From Man to Man," by Olive Schreiner, the author of "The Story of an African Farm." "From Man to Man" is edited by her husband and published several years after her death. She began to write the book in 1876 when she 21 years of age, and continued to work at it until 1911, 35 years later. So it seems to combine her youthful aspirations with her mature ideals.

The prelude to the story is a most beautiful picture of a little girl and her feelings on the birth of a new sister. It is charmingly written and shows the intensity of her love for the baby. The story itself concerns these two sisters and their experiences with men. It is a strong protest against the inequality of sex standards and a plea for the rights of women. As the characters live in South Africa, the points of view of the different races must be considered. In few books of today is such love of children portrayed.

A list of the new books follows:
 "From Man to Man"—Olive Schreiner.
 "Lost Ecstasy"—Rinehart.
 "Small Bachelor"—Wodehouse.
 "Mother Knows Best"—Ferber.
 "Mysteries"—Hamsun.
 "Harvest Moon"—Fletcher.
 "Three Lights From a Match"—Nason.
 "Giants on the Earth"—Rolvag.
 "Royal Road to Romance"—Halliburton.
 "Craig's Wife"—Kelly.

EFFECTS SALE

William H. Wilson & Company have effected settlement for the property located at 18 Elmwood avenue, recently sold for L. B. Eichengreen to an undisclosed buyer. The property, which was held at $16,000, contains 12 rooms, two baths and a garage, and is detached.

So few attain that nice balance midway between inferiority complex and swell head.

FISHING WITHOUT BAIT

Once in a great while a fish is caught on a hook without bait—but not often.

And once in a great while it is possible to find some one who has made money without thrift—but not often. The chances are all against the man who does not accumulate money in bank. The business fish is best caught with the bait of an account here.

There is as much difference between a dollar in the pocket and a dollar here in bank as there is between a tea cup and a cup of tea.
